Dress Code for the Christian Academy Prom

Young ladies are asked to wear a dress or gown that is modest in appearance, one that shows no cleavage and is no shorter than four inches above the knee. Formal floor length or tea length gowns are also encouraged and very appropriate for this type of evening event. Two piece dresses showing a midriff should be modest and cover the belly button with no more than one inch visibility.

Evening dresses should not have side, front or back slits that are higher than four inches above the knee. Strapless dresses or halter dresses are allowed, however they should show no cleavage. Dresses with low necklines or revealing necklines are not appropriate. Dresses should be cut no lower than middle of the back.

Young men may choose to wear a tuxedo, but please know that this is optional.
Wearing a jacket, tie and dress slacks is appropriate as well.

Please understand that any student or guest who arrives to a formal or semi-formal Christian Academy event who is not dressed appropriately according to the guidelines listed above will be asked to leave the event. If you have any questions, please contact Scarlet Fowler at sfowler@christianacademysaints.org.
