BUILDING A BRIDGE

"When I was in middle school, I looked like the happy kid who played sports, loved music and liked to have fun. On the inside, however, I was paddling hard to keep my head above water and maintain my image and perceived status. I felt alone in many ways and did not feel truly known. And Jesus? I had no clue whether He cared for me personally or had decided to spend His time with other sheep.

That's why I'm so excited about The Bridge.

Our senior class has created a Christ-centered mentorship program called The Bridge that will make its debut on Friday, September 25th. Their desire is to positively impact our middle school students by encouraging them in their relationship with God and providing support for them here. Evidence demonstrates that cross-age mentoring programs have a measurable impact on students' spiritual growth, sense of belonging, quality of relationships, emotional health, and connection with the school. The Bridge will enable middle school students to catch a vision for who they can become, while learning how to live out their faith in Christ. It also will allow our seniors an opportunity to see lives forever changed while they also grow in the process. This is why we're all so excited about building The Bridge at Christian Academy, where students can grow together in Christ while they prepare for a lifetime of impacting the world through the gospel."

Student Government

Middle School Class Representatives

4 of our middle school class representatives traveled to the SC State House to the SCISA Fall Student Government Conference where they attended a Bill Writing Workshop!

High School SICSA Student Government Fall Conference

4 of our high school students traveled to the SC State House to present two bills- one for the senate and one for the house. The SCISA schools then voted on the bills.

STEM

This week, our Middle School STEM students celebrated International Dot Day, inspired by Peter H. Reynolds' book The Dot, which encourages students to embrace creativity and big thinking.

Students put their innovation to the test in a unique engineering challenge: building the tallest free-standing tower using only 30 index cards and 15 dot stickers. The ultimate test of stability required the structures to successfully balance a ping pong ball at the very top.

Our young engineers showed incredible teamwork, resilience, and critical thinking as they folded, rolled, and balanced their way to success. They truly made their mark this week!
